

CONTENTS

Editor's Notes.....	4
RESEARCH
Maori flourmills in Horowhenua and Kapiti.....	5
The Eager family: Early settlers and identities of Otaki.....	14
Photos from the Peter R Harris collection.....	17
OTAKI HISTORY
'It was all about the music': The Salvation Army in Otaki.....	18
A ray of hope: The pioneering work of Marjorie Gordon.....	25
From the archives: Pukekaraka.....	29
Century of voluntary lifesaving service.....	30
The short dramatic life of the ketch Otaki.....	35
Moving a very old house.....	37
Zero Waste Otaki: Turning old junk into useful products.....	38
John David Buckley photographer.....	40
The changing face of No 2 Main Street.....	42
MEMORIES
PocketMoney.....	43
Otaki Township & business district: Snapshots of changes since 1946.....	47
The story of a walking stick.....	53
Inspired by nature: International artist Ernest Papps.....	55
As it happens 2021 – 2022.....	58
MUSEUM EXHIBITIONS
Behind the scenes of an exhibition at the Otaki Museum.....	63
The Way we were: Glimpses of days gone by.....	66
REVIEWS
Biography of Dr Gertrude Atmore	69
Thirty years of the Kapiti Brass Band.....	70
LIVES PAST
Alan Stead: Community worker, shipping and railway enthusiast, and photographer.....	71
Memories of Rose Monk.....	75
Bruce Jones: Cartographer.....	78
OTAKI HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Journals available.....	80
2021 Annual report.....	81
The OHS committee.....	82

The Otaki Historical Journal is published by the Otaki Historical Society (Inc). The Society was founded in 1977 and has produced a journal almost every year since 1978.

We welcome correspondence from readers. We also welcome contributions in the form of stories, research and photographs about the Otaki area. Please contact the editor at:

otakihistoricalsociety@yahoo.com
otakihistoricalsociety@gmail.com
49 Main St Otaki 5512.

The journal is designed by Nikki Lundie of NEL Design, Te Horo, and printed by Graphic Press & Packaging, Levin.

www.otakihistoricalsociety.org.nz
ISSN 0110-5647