

OTAKI HISTORY
Sonia Snowden — master weaver.....	3
Saving our history.....	7
Fifty years of retailing in Main Street.....	12
A good old Kiwi invention.....	16
Citizens Advice Bureau Otaki — the first 40 years.....	17
As it happens, 2019–2021	20
MEMORIES
Stories and memorabilia from the Jubilee Hotel	25
My memories are part of Otaki	27
A boy’s walk through Main Street in the 1950s.....	32
Working at Roydons — my first job.....	36
Photos from our archives	38
Gloria Johnston — advocate for women and babies	40
The Andrew family in Manakau.....	43
RESEARCH
A brief respite — the United States Marine Corps in the Tararua Ranges	48
The chequered history of the Kaitawa Scenic Reserve	50
Crossing the Otaki River	55
MUSEUM EXHIBITIONS
Ko Otaki te Awa: Otaki is the River	62
LIVES PAST
Betty Empson — a woman of the land.....	66
Ray Moffatt — innovative creator and historian.....	67
Ivy Rutter – centre stage.....	68
OTAKI HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Journals available.....	70
2020 Annual Report	71
The Otaki Historical Society committee.....	72

The Otaki Historical Journal is published by the Otaki Historical Society (Inc). The Society was founded in 1977 and has produced a journal almost every year since 1978.

We welcome correspondence from readers. We also welcome contributions in the form of stories, research and photographs about the Otaki area. Please contact the editor at:

otakihistoricalsociety@yahoo.com or otakihistoricalsociety@gmail.com or at 49 Main St Otaki 5512.

The journal is designed and indexed by Lynn Peck, Porirua, and printed by Graphic Press & Packaging, Levin.

www.otakihistoricalsociety.org.nz
ISSN 0110-5647