

CONTENTS

Editor's Notes	4
RESEARCH
Archaeology of the Peka Peka to Ōtaki expressway	5
Whitebait at Ōtaki River	11
The soldier settlers of Pukenamu	19
ŌTAKI HISTORY
Two organisations become one	25
From genealogy to family and social history	29
Sunny Ōtaki - Concept to brand	32
A journey of discovery - Richard Booth and his descendants	37
Getting the picture - The photography of Jack Buckley	41
Margaret Quill - entrepreneur	44
Snapshots of Ōtaki flooding over the past century	48
The changing face of Ōtaki	50
As it happens 2022 - 2023	54
MEMORIES
Living treasures remember the early days	58
More about pocket money	61
Where the Pacific rolls	64
MUSEUM EXHIBITION
Ngā kōrero mai i te Wāhi Ara Tereina Stories from the Railway	67
LIVES PAST
Murray Scott - He made his mark on Ōtaki	71
Te Waari Carkeek - Historian and storyteller	72
Charman Moy - Refugee from war-torn Toisan to Ōtaki	73
Noeline Gimblett - Community volunteer and bridge player	78
ŌTAKI HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Additions and corrections	82
Old journals available	82
Journal index	82
Annual Report 2022	83
The OHS Committee	84

This issue of the Ōtaki Historical Journal is the last to be published by the Ōtaki Historical Society, which has produced a journal almost every year since 1978. From now on the journal will be published by Ōtaki Heritage – Te Whare Pouhere Taonga o Ōtaki. This new organisation has taken on this role from the Ōtaki Historical Society

We welcome correspondence from readers. We also welcome contributions in the form of stories, research and photographs about the Ōtaki area.

Please contact the editor at:
otakihistoricalsociety@gmail.com
49 Main St Ōtaki 5512.

The journal is designed by NEL Design, and indexed by Carol Dawber. It is printed by Graphic Press & Packaging.

www.otakihistoricalsociety.org.nz

ISSN 0110-5647